

The Benefits of Canine Retreats

Issue 62 • Feature • by Claudia Bensimoun

Top Dog Sports Camps— Where Fido can be the camp champ.

For dog lovers dreaming of their own perfect pet vacay with Fido, canine camps are guaranteed to capture every dog lover's quest for adventure. With so many stimulating canine camps to choose from, you can work up a thirst hiking and participating in your favorite dog-related sports. Canine sports camps are committed to not only the perfection of all dog sports, but to giving back the fun that all pet parents should have with their dogs, in a way that is making a real difference. When you sign up for dog camp with your best friend, you're both in for a fun time.

Hikes, agility, dock diving, nosework, herding, clicker training and plenty of other exciting activities for both you and Fido have been especially crafted so that no matter your energy level, everyone can enjoy their experience. Depending on both you and Fido's level of fitness, age and health, you can choose to sign up for less strenuous activities, or just hang out and enjoy the beauty of the Montana landscape where Yellowstone Dog Sports is located.

Located near Red Lodge, Montana, Yellowstone Dog Camp offers canine massage, agility, swimming, dock diving and even nosework..

For the Full Exclusive Story, see the Jun/Jul/Aug Issue of FIDO Friendly.